LAD'S ARM AT ELBOW WAS
OUT OF JOINT TWO MONTHSWILLIAM SCHOENE WAS UNA-WARE THAT ANYTHING HAD HAPPENED TO IT.

Having had his right arm out of joint at the elbow for over two months without knowing it, William Schoene, a 19 year old lad of Ritter, and nephew of Gottlieb Miller, well known local farmer, is here today to be operated upon. This afternoon it is the expectation he will be treated at the hospital tomorrow.

Young Schoene got his injury while wrestling at his home near Ritter. His arm hurt him somewhat but he did not realize it was out of place. Later as his arm remained partly stiff he began to be uneasy about it and finally decided to come to Pendleton to have it investigated. As soon as the X-ray was turned on the arm it was seen that one bone was extending along the other at the elbow and that a difficult operation would be necessary to restore the arm to its natural state.
